

Jean Monnet Project

Boosting European Security Law and Policy: Focus on Flows of Migrants, Data Security and Movement of Capitals (BeSEC) “Focus on Personal Data, Ethnic Data and Security”

TUESDAY 28– WEDNESDAY 29 MAY 2019

I Session—28 May 2019

Introductory session

Sergiusz Bober, ECMI: Welcome note

Andreea Carstocea, ECMI: short presentation of ECMI work

Giammaria Milani, University of Siena: *Short presentation of the BeSEC project
Introduction of participants and topics*

Refreshment break

Alessandro Palmieri, University of Siena

The fundamental right to privacy and challenges of the platform economy

Filippo Dami, University of Siena

The exchange of information among tax authorities and the measures to protect the privacy of taxpayers

Refreshment break

Giammaria Milani, University of Siena

Nationality and Security in the Italian Legal Order

Ljubica Djordjevic, ECMI

Processing ethnicity data in European countries

II Session—29 May 2019

Nevena Ružić, Office of the Information Commissioner, Republic of Serbia

European standards for processing of sensitive data: some lessons for collection and protection of ethnicity data

Tatjana Vlašić, Office of the Ombudswoman, Republic of Croatia

Collection and protection of data relevant for the protection of national minorities: example of Croatia

Refreshment break

Andras Pap, Institute for Legal Studies, Hungarian Academy of Sciences

Ethnic data protection and collection: the case of Hungary

Craig Willis, ECMI

Ethnic data collection and protection: the case of the United Kingdom

Refreshment break

General discussion

Riccardo Pavoni, University of Siena

Concluding Remarks